Executive Summary

The France Pathway Program is a strategic academic partnership initiative developed by Le Frehindi to help Indian universities create structured pathways for:

- French language education (A1–B2)
- Higher education access in France
- Semester exchange opportunities
- Research and innovation exposure
- Internship and career readiness
- International mobility preparation

The programme combines language learning, academic counselling, Campus France guidance, discipline-specific university mapping, employability preparation and cultural orientation within a single university-based framework.

Le Frehindi functions as an academic implementation partner, not a study-abroad agency.

Why France? Why Now?

France offers Indian students:

- Affordable public higher education
- Globally recognised qualifications
- World-class research infrastructure
- Growing English-taught programmes
- Internship and industry exposure
- Access to European career opportunities

India–France 2030 Opportunity

France aims to welcome 30,000 Indian students by 2030, creating significant opportunities for academic collaboration and student mobility between Indian and French institutions.

Challenges Faced by Indian Students

- Limited French language proficiency
- Low awareness of French institutions and pathways
- Complex admission and Campus France procedures
- Limited internship and employability preparation
- Late planning for overseas education
- Need for structured institutional support

Le Frehindi Solution

The programme is built around four integrated pillars.

1. French Language Development

A1–B2 pathway, academic French, professional communication and DELF-oriented preparation.

2. Academic Readiness

University mapping, Master's guidance, research pathways, Campus France and application preparation.

3. Career Readiness

CVs, motivation letters, interviews, LinkedIn, workplace communication and internship awareness.

4. International Mobility

Counselling, visa readiness, pre-departure orientation and cultural preparation for France.

Why Should Universities Partner with Le Frehindi?

- Strengthen internationalisation strategy
- Support NEP 2020 objectives
- Build sustainable France partnerships
- Enhance graduate employability
- Develop department-specific pathways
- Expand faculty collaboration opportunities
- Increase institutional visibility

Institutional Benefits

- Structured France-focused academic pathways
